

“I turned my pain into action after my son was murdered by a man with a gun.

I have spent every day since fighting as hard as I can to make sure no other family has to go through what mine did.”<sup>1</sup>

—Lucy McBath

Gun violence took her son, so Lucy McBath took on the NRA.

A mother, breast cancer survivor, and Delta flight attendant, Lucy McBath's life changed forever when her son, Jordan, was shot and killed by a man who thought his music was too loud. When she realized that our lawmakers were doing nothing to address rampant gun violence, she ran for Congress against an NRA-backed incumbent and won.

Lucy McBath understands the challenges we face in Georgia and continues to be a champion for our families:

- ✓ Working to create jobs and expand educational opportunity
- ✓ Fighting for background checks on all gun sales
- ✓ Standing up against attempts to limit voters' access to the ballot box, cosponsoring the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act
- ✓ Leading the push for criminal justice reform
- ✓ Making the child tax credit permanent

Vote Democrat Lucy McBath for Congress

Primary Election: May 24th
